Conditions of participation:	According to FCI Regulations for International Lure Coursing Events, each dog entering the race must have a valid racing or coursing licence. All competitors must carefully follow the race schedule, so the trouble free progress of the race can be ensured. The FCI judging system is used.
Jackets and muzzles:	Racing jackets in red and white colour without numbers . Muzzles are required for all breeds!
Race schedule:	Selection of pairs of dogs for the first fun is done by the random selection. In case of an uneven number of entries the organizers will try to find a companion dog, where possible, to avoid a solo run. For the second round, the dogs will be arranged by the score of the first run. In case there are less than 6 dogs on the start from each sex, males and females run together.

Protest:	The protesting person must deposit 100 EUR to the race organizer. If the protest is legitimate and justified this deposit will be returned. The Lure Coursing Director, in conjunction with the judges, is authorized to reject the protest. The organizer will write a Coursing report about the race and send it to the Coursing Committee together with the protest description and its solution/results. It is not possible to give a protest against the judge's decisions.
